

ADOBE

9A0-079

Adobe(R) RoboHelp(R) 7 ACE

QUESTION: 117

Which item may be included in a snippet?

- A. bookmarks
- B. tables
- C. header
- D. footer

Answer: B

QUESTION: 118

To which item can a user defined variables be assigned?

- A. glossary term
- B. cascading style sheet
- C. image map
- D. table of contents book

Answer: D

QUESTION: 119

You want to add a Snippet to multiple topics. What should you do?

- A. Select multiple topics on the Topic List pod and drag the Snippet into the topics.
- B. Attach the Snippet to one topic at a time via the Properties of the open topic.
- C. Add the Snippet to a style within a CSS and then attach the CSS to multiple topics.
- D. Insert the Snippet into a template and then attach the template to multiple topics.

Answer: D

QUESTION: 120

Which command should you choose to show user defined variables as green text in the Design Editor?

- A. View > Show > Positioning
- B. View > Show > Tag List
- C. View > Show > Fields

- D. View > Show > Conditional Areas
- E. View > Show > Glyphs

Answer: C

QUESTION: 121

You have created synonym image. What happens when the user searches for the term picture?

- A. the search term results take the user to a topics containing the word image
- B. the word picture is highlighted in the topic pane
- C. the word picture comes to the top of the topic pane
- D. the search term results find all topics with the word image in bold

Answer: A

QUESTION: 122

You are creating a help system targeted to multiple audiences. You have developed Conditional Build Tags as well as a Conditional Build Expression that will control which topics are part of your help system. Your Table of Contents should accurately reflect only the topics in your help system. What should you do?

- A. Edit the Topic properties of each affected topic. Choose the Advanced tab and ensure the appropriate Map ID has been assigned.
- B. Edit the Table of Contents properties for the topic. Choose the General tab and ensure the appropriate variable has been assigned.
- C. Edit the Topic properties of each affected topic. Choose the Advanced tab and ensure the appropriate Topic Level build tag has been assigned.
- D. Edit the Topic properties of each affected topic. Choose the Advanced tab and ensure the appropriate Content Level build tag has been assigned.

Answer: C

QUESTION: 123

You want to have a term that is included in your help system. You also want the term to be hidden so users will NOT find it if searched. What should you do?

- A. choose Tools > Spelling options > Ignored Words
- B. choose File > Project Settings > Advanced button > always Ignore Words tab

- C. choose Edit > Information Types
- D. choose File > Project Settings > Advanced button > Stop List tab

Answer: D

QUESTION: 124

Which format does NOT support using Breadcrumb navigation?

- A. WebHelp
- B. WebHelp Pro
- C. FlashHelp
- D. FlashHelp Pro
- E. Microsoft HTML Help

Answer: E

QUESTION: 125

You have created your See Also keywords and associated project topics with the keywords. You now want to insert the See Also keywords into a project topic. What should you do?

- A. Use the Insert Navigation Control tool to insert a See Also control that will use the See Also keywords.
- B. Right-click selected text and choose Insert Hyperlink.
- C. Select topics on the Topic List pod and drag them into the See Also control on the Index pod.
- D. Drag the See Also control from the See Also folder into an open topic.

Answer: A

QUESTION: 126

Which is the file name extension for an Index project file?

- A. XPJ
- B. HHK
- C. HHC
- D. CHM

Answer: B

QUESTION: 127

You want to quickly create a Table of Contents. What should you do?

- A. Choose File > New > Map File to begin mapping topics to the Table of Contents.
- B. Choose File > Load Environment to load the existing Table of Contents.
- C. Display the Project Manager pod, expand the Table of Contents folder and double-click the Table of Contents you find there. Then click Tools > Auto-create TOC.
- D. Choose Tools > Browse Sequence Editor and click the Auto-create using TOC button.

Answer: C

QUESTION: 128

You have created a help system as well as an index. You are now configuring your help system to target multiple audiences using Conditional Build Tagging and Conditional Build Expressions. One of the terms in your Index is the word Color. You want to also insert the term Colour and map both terms to the proper topic. What should you do?

- A. Create two different redirect topics and map each topic so it redirects to the common topic. This allows you to control which term appears in your index by excluding the appropriate redirect topic.
- B. Choose Edit > Map Ids and configure things there.
- C. Display the Index Designer pod, right-click the terms and apply the appropriate Conditional Build Tag.
- D. Choose Tools > Smart Index Wizard and make the appropriate selections using the Wizard dialogs.

Answer: C

QUESTION: 129

After reviewing your project you have decided that each topic should include disclaimer information below the text of each topic. What should you do?

- A. Create a snippet containing the disclaimer information. Then edit each topic and add the snippet at the bottom of the topic.
- B. Type the disclaimer information into Windows Notepad. Select the text and edit each topic. Paste the information at the bottom of each topic.

C. Display the Project Set-up pod. Right-click the Templates folder and choose New Topic Template. Edit the template to add a footer containing the desired information. Select all topics and display Topic Properties. From the General tab, choose the new template to apply it to all topics in the project.

D. Display the Project Set-up pod. Right-click the Templates folder and choose New Topic Template. Edit the template to add a footer containing the desired information. Select all topics. Click the template and drag it to the selected topics to apply it.

Answer: C

QUESTION: 130

You have created a new topic template. You want to attach the template to all of your existing project topics . What should you do?

A. On the Topic List pod, select any topic in the pod and then choose Edit > Select All to select all of the project topics at one time. On the General tab, select the template you would like to attach to the selected topics from the Template drop-down menu and then click OK.

B. Open a single project topic. Right-click a single topic and choose Properties. On the General tab, select the template you would like to attach to the topic from the Template drop-down menu and then click OK. Repeat this process for every topic in the project.

C. On the Project Manager pod, choose Edit > Select All to select all of the project topics at one time. On the General tab, select the template you would like to attach to the selected topics from the Template drop-down menu and then click OK.

D. On the Project Manager Pod, open the Project Files folder. Right-click a single topic and choose Properties. On the General tab, select the template you would like to attach to the topic from the Template drop-down menu and then click OK. Repeat this process for every topic in the project.

Answer: A

QUESTION: 131

You are NOT using a Topic Template. You want to attach a CSS to all of your project topics. What should you do?

A. On the Project Manager Pod, open the Project Files folder. Right-click a topic and choose Properties. On the Appearance tab, select the CSS you would like to attach to the topic and then click OK. Repeat this process for every topic in the project.

B. On the Project Manager pod, choose Edit > Select All to select all of the project topics at one time. With all of the topics selected right-click any of the topics, choose Properties and, on the Appearance tab, select the CSS you would like to attach to the topics. Then click OK.

C. Open a project topic and select the CSS from the list of style sheets when you click the Assign Style Sheet or Create New tool on the Formatting toolbar. Repeat this process for every topic in the project.

D. On the Topic List pod, select any topic in the pod and then choose Edit > Select All to select all of the project topics at one time. With all of the topics selected right-click any of the topics, choose Properties and, on the Appearance tab, select the CSS you would like to attach to the topics. Then click OK.

Answer: D

QUESTION: 132

You have text in a topic with several inline formats applied. You want to remove all of the inline formatting. What should you do?

A. Select the text and click the HTML button to show the topic source code. Delete the formatting code, being careful not to delete topic content.

B. Select the text and, on the Formatting toolbar, click the Apply Bold, Apply Italic and Apply Underline tools, one after the other, to remove the inline formatting.

C. Right-click the text containing the inline formatting and choose Remove Attribute.

D. Reapply the topic template to the topic which will remove the inline formatting.

Answer: C

QUESTION: 133

You want to use an image in the background of your topics. Which CSS style should you modify?

A. Normal

B. Background + Text (Body)

C. Drop-down text

D. Lists

Answer: B

Download Full Version From <https://www.certkillers.net>

DON'T KNOW
OR NO PREFERENCE

Pass your exam at First Attempt....Guaranteed!