Microsoft

MB3-210

Great Plains 8.0 Report Writer

What is the main function of additional headers and footers?

A. To allow fields such as page numbers and report titles to be in separate header sections on the report
B. To group related records together on a report.
C. To have additional space for headings that normally would not fit in the page and report headers.
D. To allow you to have column headings on your report.

Answer: B

QUESTION: 147
What must you do if you want a user to have access to a secondary copy of a report you have just created?

A. Grant them access to the primary copy of the report
B. Take away access to the original report first,then grant access to the secondary report
C. Nothing, access is automatically granted
D. Grant them access to the secondary report

Answer: C

QUESTION: 148
Which of the following is the smallest unit of data stored in Great Plains?

A. Fields
B. Tables
C. Table Groups
D. Records

Answer: A

QUESTION: 149
What is required if you want to change the color and fonts of fields on a report?

A. The report needs to be a graphical report.
B. The report needs to be a primary copy.

C. The report needs to be a secondary copy.
D. The report needs to be a text report.

Answer: A

QUESTION: 150
Which of the following statements is true about expressions for calculated fields in Report Writer?

A. A calculated field can only be used for calculations and can't be placed in the layout of a report.
B. Calculated fields can only be used on Custom reports, not on primary and secondary copies of original reports.
C. A value should only be entered in the True case field of a conditional expression.
D. Values must be placed in both the True and False case fields of a conditional expression.

Answer: D

QUESTION: 151
Which table stores reports that have been modified in Report Writer?

A. Dynamics.set
B. Pathnames.doc
C. Dynamics.dic
D. Reports.dic

Answer: D

QUESTION: 152
When creating a restriction for a report, which of the following can be included in the expression?

A. Operators
B. Sorts
C. Constants
D. Table fields

Answer: A, C, D

Alphanumeric fields such as the account number field in General Ledger, are stored as which type of field?

A. Date
B. String
C. Integer
D. Currency

Answer: B