CertKillers

Guaranteed Success with Accurate & Updated Questions.

Scrum

SASM
SAFe 5 Advanced Scrum Master

Questions & Answers PDF

For More Information - Visit:
https://www.certkillers.net/

Latest Version: 6.0

Question: 1

Continuous Integration involves integrating the code across all agile teams from commit to deploying on staging environment

A. TRUE
B. FALSE

Answer: A

Question: 2

On a Kanban board, it is recommended to make the states of workflow more granular to help visualize _____

A. Flow
B. WIP
C. Work allocation
D. Bottlenecks

Answer: D

Explanation/Reference:
M<ore granular states in workflow help visualize the bottlenecks and in turn help identify steps to improve the flow

Question: 3

Which type of anti-patterns is listed here: The team does not have any data on how they are doing from past few iterations, hence they are not able to comment on what can be improved further

A. Demos
B. Planning
C. Commitment
D. Execution
E. PO and Backlog
F. Retrospectives

Answer: F

Explanation/Reference:
Retrospectives are not driven properly - there are discussions but no tangible measurement of any improvements that are done or are required

Question: 4

Benefit of Community of Practice (CoP) for Organization in short term is improved quality of decisions

A. TRUE
B. FALSE

Answer: A

Explanation/Reference:
Short term benefit is more informed decision making leading to better quality of outcomes

Question: 5

Product Management has reprioritized some functionalities for a Feature. During the System Demo, Product Management is surprised that the team is still working on the old priority of feature. This is an example of weak collaboration between _____ and _____ (choose 2)

A. Scrum Master
B. Product owner
C. Testers
D. Team
E. Developers

Answer: B

Explanation/Reference:
PO and Team are not joined up and changes in priorities are not actively communicated and being worked upon

Question: 6

If we have to split stories for the following functionalities, which Story splitting approach will be used:
A retail sites provides for buy-now, as well as, a bidding process where lowest bidder gets to buy the item

A. By underlying technology
B. By choice of tools used for implementation
C. By Business rule variations
D. By use case
E. As suggested by Product Owner
F. By simplicity or complexity

Answer: F

Explanation/Reference:
Story splitting by complexity level will be used. While buy-now could be a simpler case, compared to the bidding process

Question: 7

In SAFe CALMR Approach for DevOps, when someone is talking about Feature toggles or fixforward, they are referring to

A. Lean Flow
B. Automation
C. Measurement
D. Recovery

Answer: D

Explanation/Reference:
All these are approaches of Recovery without impacting the existing functionalities

Question: 8

Enabler stories may include? (select 2)

A. Improving Infrastructure
B. New features
C. Refactoring & Spikes
D. Persona driven story

Answer: A,C

Explanation/Reference:
Enabler stories could be any of the following - Refactoring and spikes , Building or improving infrastructure, Verification of system qualities

Question: 9

There are __ core competencies of Business Agility

A. 4
B. 7
C. 5
D. 3

Answer: B

Explanation/Reference:
There are seven core competencies of Business Agility in the SAFe Framework

Question: 10

As an attribute of Systems Thinking, optimizing a _____ does not optimize the system

A. Feature
B. Component
C. Team
D. Architecture

Answer: B

Explanation/Reference:
Optimizing a component only gives localized improvement and not system level improvement